

Japanese junior high school club activities are held after school and are popular with many students. There are sports clubs, such as soccer and basketball, and cultural clubs, such as brass band and art. Students usually choose one club and practice with their friends. Through club activities, they learn teamwork, hard work, and not giving up.

Club activities help students make friends and enjoy school life in Japan.

Club activities

